CAN'T LIVE WITH WIFE WHO PREFERS KNITTING TO MOVIE

USTICE JOSEPH MOR-SCHAUSER, who granted a separation to Mrs. Pollie Wilfoughby from her husband, John B. Willoughby, a merchant of Dobbs Ferry, to-day at White Plains said it was one of the most remarkable cases of the hundreds he has heard. The plaintiff made no charge of cruelty, but the husband declared in court he would not and could not live with his wife any longer. He was willing to pay the $80 a month alimony allowed by the Court and made no opposition to the sult.

Mr. Willoughby testified that his wife was different from other women, because she did not want to go to the movies, but insisted on staying at home and knitting. "She told me to go out at night," said the defendant, "and then Jawed me when I returned

The couple were married on Jan, 1, 1916, and Mrs. Willoughby said her husband would mock and mimic her. He took her to England in August, 1919, and left her, promising to come back to bring her home. Instead she said he did not and she had to borrow money to come back, "steerage."

The Slip-in-and-Slip-off Type of Top-Coat

You know the coat-"Old Faithful"—it seldom dies and never resigns and along about the third year you begin to have an affection for it. . . We make it in a loose-fitting, button-thru model of Cheviot and Tweed. And the tailoring is there-make no mistake about that!

true - something What?....Sports hats of Milan hemp and stitched wool. The hemp is white; the wool is jade, coral, purple, navy or aztec -thus making a very happy combination-bright, summery and practical.

Some have the new bell crowns; and you may choose from tams, sailors, roll brims and side rolls. Quite the prettiest and most unusual sports hats we've seen this

A Sale of Summer Bed Sets

This is a very happy suggestion for brightening up the home for the glad days that are coming. It's a good idea to change things around; and even a new bed setfresh and crisp-helps along the idea in a good way.

$9.95were $12.50

Mitcheline colored bed sets, consisting of spread and sham. Pink, blue or yellowfast colors-scalloped -cut corners. Mother knows how well these spreads wear, and how dainty they are.

> $2.95were $3.50

These are basket weave spreads—cool, restful look-ing, with blue or pink stripes. Fast colors—three-quarter and double bed size. Some were as much as $4.50.

> $2.75-$4 grade

Printed bed spreads - typical of the summer cottage, and the bungalow. Floral patterns in fast colors cheerful and bright. These are light in weight and exactly right for summer use. Down-Stairs Store, New Bldg.

600 prs. Low-Price Oxfords $6

The picture shows you how pleasing in appearance this model is; and the quality of the oxford is none the less so.

The variety offers patent and dull black leather, with soft and flexible turn soles. The heel is the medium Louis, not too high, but high enough to be graceful and sightly.

These oxfords are better than our regular $8 oxfords; and we're glad that the purchase came our way in ample time for early spring.

Looked for Extra-Size Blouses?

Many women tell us that extra-size Georgette blouses at a moderate price can not be found; so we're correcting a false impression.

There are exactly 135 blouses in this group—all of Georgette, mostly hand-embroidered or beaded.

The shades are navy, plum, mahogany, gray— and white; and the sizes 46 to 54. Something very good at-

This Man Made Army Shoes

The above picture illustrates a sturdy shoe for girls; but, of course, the maker did not make army shoes for

He made the regulation army shoes-and he used in these girls' shoes the same sole leather that went into sturdy army shoes. That's why these shoes are so good.

They are tan leather; high cut, lace style; and Monday's prices will be less than the maker's original wholesale price:

Girls' Shoes-Sizes 8½ to 10½ ... $3.60 11 to 2 ... $4.15 2½ to 4½ ... $5.25 Down-Stairs Store, New Bldg.

Couch Hammocks $12.50

$14.75 grade

We bought couch hammocks when many stores were only thinking about them; and this one number illustrates the point in a very good way.

The bottom frame is metal; with helical springs, chain suspension, adjustable windshield, magazine pockets and denim-covered mattress. 28x27 in. in size. This is a very practical hammock, and now ready for immediate delivery.

Metal stand, if desired, is $7 additional. Down-Stairs Store, New Bldg.

A Good Dress for $12

There is a little group of 200 dresses in the Pin Money Dress Shop that has overstayed its time. Hence, the blue pencil has lowered the price to $12.

The serges are mostly navy blue; and the jerseys are in navy, tan, brown, copenhagen and gray. Sizes are 16 and 18 for misses, and 36 to 42 for women.

One commendable feature about these frocks is their conservative fashion features, straight lines or tunics with braid and buttons used in moderation and in good taste.

> Accordion-pleated Plaid Sports Cape finished, stained or enameled.

description

The newest and smartest of wraps designers have given the smart woman this season is the accordion-pleated-or, indeed, plain and tailored-sports cape.

These capes have an infinite amount of charm and possibilities for an infinite amount of wear for many occasions. For steamer, other travel, sports, motor, and town, these capewraps are correct in any case. ILLUSTRATED is one of midnight blue serge-plaided with gray and bright sapphire blue. The effect of this wrap is of two capes, one worn over the other.

The collar is one of those great draped affairs of the plain unpleated material. The lining is of sapphire blue pussy willow arranged so that the material of the cape holds its pleating and is not stretched by the movements of the wearer. Two long black silk lacquered ribbons fall from collar to hem. Price $125.

Another cape-wrap of this type is of dark blue soft cheviot, plaided with jade green and white and scalloped around the bottom.

The shoulder line is most quaint, since it is fitted much after the fashibn of the capes our grandmothers wore. A white pique turndown collar and long white pique bands that either are worn loose or crossed in front and tied in back are another very smart feature of this cape. The lining is of a beautiful green satin that matches the green of the plaid. Price,

The hand-made Lingerie Blouse

For general wear

The blouse that looks equally well with her sports clothes as with her tailored suit for town is an essential in the wardrobe of the outof-town woman. The Blouse Shop specializes

in little hand-made blouses that may appear with impunity with both sweater and sports suit and with trim tailored costume.

At very moderate prices -considering the amount of exquisite hand-work in each blouse. Illustrated is a blouse of fine white batiste, made with a long fichu-like collar that gives a re-markably good line to the wearer. The edge of the collar is finished with a tiny hand-hemmed ruffle that is very attractive. $8.75.

Two other hand-made batiste biouses feature insets of hand-hematitching, on the bodice col-lar, and cuffs. One has a flat sailor collar that some women prefer to all others, and the other hes a soft roll collar. Price of each, $5.95.

Second floor, Old Bldg.

An ORIGINAL suite of finely woven reed; done in our own workroom; seven pieces, finished in black gloss enamel, with edge of lavender. Seat cushions are filled with hair and down, and covered with purple and gold silk velvet. Pillows and bolsters are filled with down, covered with lavender and gold silk. Table has glass top, under which is a silk-covered pad. $1,548.

NOT just reed and willow

There's an individuality to the summer furniture in the Wanamaker Galleries. THOUGHT has been added. Line and color supplement the native charm of picked reed and willow. You will find something here which you will not find anywhere else—ORIG-INAL suites for veranda or living room, and no exact copies.

Always comfortable, primarily practical furniture for the warm months, reed and willow pieces, as finished in the Wanamaker way, are works of art-an inspiration as well as a comfort. Different-

You may have a matched suite for as little as $129

Or you may have one for $1,758.

The $129 suite is of reed in a brown finish; settee, arm chair and two rockers.

The $1,758 suite is of reed, in black enamel fan-back pieces, with peacock tails painted on by hand; settee, chaise longue, two arm chairs (one with magazine pocket), side chair, table, desk, fern tand and floor lamp; with seat cushions and pillows covered with purple taffeta, with purple and gold tassel ends.

Between these two, there are a score and more -all different-grading slowly, so that everybody may find at least one suite to her (his) taste.

Separate pieces

A big variety. Willow in its natural tone or enameled. Reed, in its natural tone, or shellac-

Cool low-back arm chairs for bedroom and boudoir, with down-filled back and loose-cushion seat. There's one perfect chair at $93. Cretonne-covered chairs for a man's room; high back; $104.

A Chair for $12.75

Or a rocker, $14. And from these figures the prices go according to the quality of the reed or willow, the lines, the covering on the cushions, and the hand-work in the finishing.

Upholstered pieces

Chairs and davenports, cretonne covered.

Davenports—one, a thoroughbred, at $531. It is as finely upholstered a piece of furniture as you could wish, or imagine; three cushion seats, three pillows, two bolster ends, go with it; all covered in a superborrectory.

You must come and ...e this summer furniture. It is all so much better than its Fifth Gallery, New Building
